Step 1

Real Exam

The genuine computer-delivered interface: split screen, draggable divider, question palette, 20-minute countdown. Exam conditions — no help, no pausing.

20:00 · not sat yet

Step 2

Analysis

Every question dissected: the correct answer, your answer, exactly where the evidence sits in the passage, and why the trap options fail.

🔒Unlocks after you submit

Step 3

Vocabulary Drill

Twenty words harvested from this passage — meaning, Uzbek translation and the original sentence. Flip, sort, repeat until they stick.

20 flashcards · spaced repeat

Step 4

Sirojiddin teacher

Sirojiddin teacher drills all 20 words — definition, Uzbek and English mixed. Scores your mastery. One session per day.

25 questions · 10 min · resets daily

Do them in this order

Sit the exam cold. Read the Analysis while the passage is fresh. Drill the 20 words, then let Sirojiddin teacher test you tomorrow — that's when they move to long-term memory.

STEP 2 · ANALYSIS

Passage 13 — question-by-question breakdown

The correct answer, your answer, where the evidence sits, and why the trap options fail.

correct	band	time used
10/13	7.0	18:05

Q	CORRECT	YOURS	EVIDENCE & TRAPS
14	1959	1959	Para A: "under a treaty signed in 1959 "
15	800,000	800,000	Para B: "trapped up to 800,000 years ago" — trap: "three kilometres" is depth, not age
16	year	ring	Para B: "Each layer records a year , much like the rings of a tree" — the tree rings are the comparison, not the answer
18	TRUE	TRUE	"More than thirty nations operate… stations" = more than thirty countries have stations
19	TRUE	NOT GIVEN	Para C: "satellite observation, which now covers the continent daily " = observe every day. It IS given — you skipped the relative clause.
20	NOT GIVEN	NOT GIVEN	Critics argue it, supporters reply — the passage never says what most scientists think. Classic opinion-vs-majority trap.

… all 13 rows continue. Click any row to jump to the highlighted sentence in the passage.

📍 Evidence in the passage

B …allowing researchers to reconstruct ancient atmospheres. Each layer records a year , much like the rings of a tree.

C …satellite observation, which now covers the continent daily .
